express yourself

"There is a vitality, a life force, an energy, a quickening that is translated through you into action, and because there is only one of you in all time, this expression is unique. And if you block it, it will never exist through any other medium and will be lost."

To the Class of 2015,

Congratulations!

Your graduation from Montclair State University is an important achievement.

As momentous as this milestone is for you, it is equally thrilling for those who care about you. One of my favorite moments each year is when I stand on the podium at Commencement, watching the students file in. I love seeing your enthusiasm, the confidence with which you walk toward the next chapter of your lives, and the pride on the faces of your families and friends. Like them, I am proud of all that you have achieved during your time at Montclair State, and I am looking forward to seeing what you will accomplish next.

With graduation, you begin a new stage in your relationship with Montclair State. When you receive your diploma, you join a vibrant network of more than 110,000 proud alumni who can serve as lifelong friends, mentors and professional contacts. I hope you will stay closely connected to your alma mater and your fellow Red Hawks as you progress through your lives and careers.

On behalf of the faculty and staff at Montclair State University, I wish you health, happiness and the best life has to offer.

Carpe diem!

Susan A. Cole
President

VICE PRESIDENT FOR STUDENT DEVELOPMENT AND CAMPUS LIFE
DR. KAREN PENNINGTON

Dear Members of the Class of 2015:

This yearbook is a photographic record of an extraordinary period in your life. As graduates before you have, I believe you will find that this book becomes more valuable to you as the years go by. It allows you to look back at your time at Montclair State University and remember all of the great experiences you had during your college years. As you browse the yearbook, you can review the ever-changing landscape of the campus and remember how you learned and changed as well.

During your time at Montclair State you were among the first to see and use the Heights as well watch the amazing rise of the CELS and new School of Business buildings. You saw the introduction of new majors and minors and experienced a world of change in the way you thought and learned. Your campus has become larger and more beautiful, reflecting the quality education you have received. We hope you will come back often and enjoy what you helped build and what is yet to come.

Congratulations on all the years of study and hard work that have resulted in graduation from Montclair State University. Completing an undergraduate degree is an accomplishment shared by a very small percentage of the population; cherish the experience. As you establish yourself in your new life and career, take with you the tools and values you learned from your family and acquired at the University to help you be all you want to be. Continue to aim high. Choose compassion over complacency and prize courage over comfort. Use your imagination, ingenuity and audacity to explore, discover and change a world encountering ceaseless and kaleidoscopic challenges. Become an engaged and responsible citizen. Be a mentor and trusted friend. Embark on new adventures and continue to grow as an educated, ethical and caring person.

I am confident you will make the right choices and do the right things. Go out into your community and the world and make your mark. We are proud that you are an alumnus of Montclair State University. You have my sincere best wishes for a happy, healthy and productive future.

Sincerely,
Dr. Karen L. Pennington

DEAN OF STUDENTS DR. ROSE MARY HOWELL

Dear Montclair State University Graduates:

I am extremely pleased to congratulate you on receiving your college degree. Your accomplishment is a testament of your diligence, focus, endurance and commitment.

As you contemplate your next step forward, I encourage each of you to expand your vision. Whether you are continuing your education in graduate or professional school or you are beginning your career, continue to believe that you are capable of achieving anything that you propose to do, as long as you work hard and persevere.

The theme of your yearbook is "Express Yourself". Therefore, I charge each of you to "express yourself" in positive ways that will inspire others to succeed;

"express yourself" in ways that will make you proud of your Montclair State University degree; and
"express yourself" so that your legacy will speak of your accomplishments.

You have obtained an excellent education at Montclair State University. Now it is up to you to make an impact in the world and to make it a better place. I know that you CAN, and I wish you continued success!

Sincerely,
Dr. Rose Mary E. Howell
Dean of Students

STUDENT GOVERNMENT ASSOCIATION PRESIDENT KRISTEN M. BUNK

It is with great honor that I commend the class of 2015, my fellow graduates, on receiving their undergraduate degrees. It has been a privilege to serve you as student body President, and it has been even more of an honor to share our college experience together.

The pursuit of an undergraduate degree is one of the most precious processes we experience in life. In this experience we've had, behold one of the most valuable lessons- to trust the process. From the moment we stepped foot on this unfamiliar ground, it only took a several bold risks, many inspirational professors, numerous study sessions and papers, countless campus programs, a handful of obstacles, and a heart full of friends, to make Montclair State our home.

Through this, we have grown tremendously and have started to transform into the extraordinary people we are destined to be. We are the creators, the thinkers, the problem-solvers, the entertainers, the discoverers, the travelers, the technologically savvy, and the risk takers. We are hope and we are the future.

We have a responsibility to go boldly and courageously into the world and give back to all that it has given to us. That is what college has taught us. To take what we learn and what we experience, and to nourish that lesson or idea so that we can make an impact on the world we live in.

Life is a process, in which we live and learn, collecting an array of experiences, and looking fondly on for years to come. So as we embark on our next adventure in life, no matter what it may be, take risks, learn as much as you can, try as many different things, and look fondly on your time here at Montclair State.

Like the college experience, there will continue to be challenging moments and thrilling moments, negative times and positive times, unnervingly anxious times and gut-wrenchingly funny times, and through all of these times, just remember to have unwavering trust in the process.

To the Montclair State University graduating class of 2015, congratulations and I wish you nothing but success and joy in all your future endeavors.

With great respect,
Kristen M. Bunk

BOARD OF TRUSTEES REPRESENTATIVE ANTHONY FASANO

To the Graduating Class of 2015,

Congratulations! All of your hard work has finally paid off and you have now earned your own college degree. That degree acts as a token to celebrate all of your accomplishments while looking toward the future as you transition into this new chapter of your life. But remember that the lessons you learned here at Montclair State University have gotten you to where you are today. More importantly, your experiences at MSU will be your guide to wherever you go tomorrow. In your time here at Montclair State, you have been a part of a unique and diverse campus that has grown tremendously since you entered the Red Hawk Family. The campus has been a representation of growth fueled by a simple concept: Carpe Diem.

Today, you are now Montclair State University alumni; you will be affiliated with MSU for the rest of your lives. So in this unknown world embrace every challenge and opportunity as you show, and teach, the world what you have learned here at Montclair State University. Carpe Diem, Seize the Day! And remember: Once a Red Hawk, Always a Red Hawk.

I wish you the best of luck in all your future endeavors.

Sincerely,

Anthony J. Fasano

President Cole, administration, faculty, staff, honored guests, parents, friends and the members of the Montclair State University Class of 2015. Since our time began here at Montclair State we have been surrounded by the image of a Red Hawk. Its noble image appears in numerous places around our campus. It decorates posters and folders and is proudly displayed on jerseys, jackets, T-shirts, hats, and even socks. We know that the Red Hawk is the Montclair State University mascot. And every one of us has been told that we are Red Hawks. But what does that mean? What does it truly mean to be a Red Hawk?

The Red Hawk has much significance in Native American lore; it's intelligent, focused, noble, brave, and takes the lead when the time is right. But a recurring theme among Native American tales is that the Red Hawk is considered the greatest of visionaries. And I think that's what we must be too. We must be visionaries focusing on the future, using the wisdom and imagination MSU has cultivated in us to guide us to success.

I think that's our key to understanding and fully realizing who we are as Red Hawks. In nature, a Red Hawk is inspiring, tenacious, creative, strong, and wise and shows initiative. At Montclair State, a Red Hawk balances a job or leading an organization along with their academic responsibilities. A Red Hawk is devoted to community service, helping others, and making the campus a better place. A Red Hawk works in the residence halls, or the Student Center, or the Rec Center. A Red Hawk spends time in the lab, experimenting, researching, and discovering. A Red Hawk student teaches. A Red Hawk spends many hours a week in rehearsals, designing and creating. That's what it means to be a Red Hawk! A Red Hawk is you and me.

Each professor we've met, every classmate we've interacted with, every friend we've made, every class we've taken, every campus event we've attended, each one of them contributes to our success. Think of it like this: each one of these experiences gives you a feather, a single feather, but when they all come together they make the most beautiful and expansive wings.

Celebrated novelist and literary critic C.S. Lewis said, "It may be hard for an egg to turn into a bird: but it would be a jolly sight harder for it to learn to fly while remaining an egg. We are like eggs at present. And you cannot go on indefinitely being just an ordinary, decent egg. We must be hatched or go bad." And though it's scary to think what lies beyond, just like every bird's first leap from the nest, I know that with the bravery innate to every Red Hawk and the support of your own great wings, we can all soar. Nothing will bring us down. To the class of 2015, seize the day! And, Red Hawks, let's fly!

school of business

Montclair State's School of Business aims to help students achieve goals and maximize their success. Our business students gain the academic knowledge and hands-on experience that makes them stand out in a crowd and our learning extends well beyond the classroom. Our corporate partners that range from a wide variety of industries provide students with hands-on learning opportunities, including co-ops, internships, lectures on real-life issues, and even the chance to follow professionals around on a typical business day.

"In the School of Business we are driven to transform today's students into tomorrow's successful business leaders. Our market-driven undergraduate and graduate programs are designed to meet the professional goals of our students by honing analytical, business, leadership, and communication skills. Our students have the opportunity to connect and engage with our network of actively engaged alumni, noted business leaders, entrepreneurs, and corporate friends and partners. Our graduates are well prepared to meet the challenges of today's – and tomorrow's evolving economies with innovative solutions."

Dean Kimberly Hollister

"I was originally a Hospitality Management major, then an Accounting major; I am now a Business Management major. While at MSU, I figured out that I want to work in the recreation field, and the management department has helped me towards that goal."

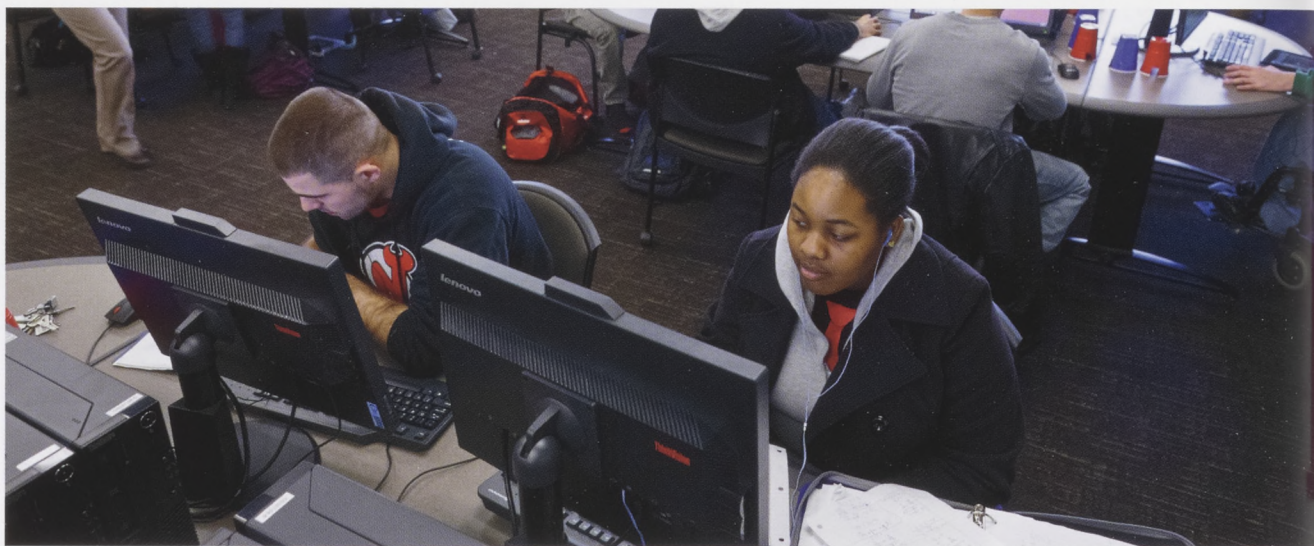

Domenica Ahmuty

"MSU has given me great insight on my future as a Business Administration major with a concentration in Marketing and Management.

The professors are very helpful with offering help and networking opportunities even outside the classroom."

Marta Hanaka

college of science and mathematics

The College of Science and Mathematics serves Montclair State University, the State of New Jersey and the nation with academically rigorous programs for teaching, for learning and for research in science and mathematics. The College offers strong disciplinary and interdisciplinary baccalaureate, certificate, master's and select doctoral programs reflecting contemporary needs and research foci in science and mathematics. Through an array of discovery-based courses and research opportunities, the College encourages learning of science and mathematics for all University students.

"We're proud of our CSAM graduates including the many who took advantage of our extensive research opportunities and those who so energetically pursued original scholarship, internships, coop programs and are now emerging to take new paths in science, technology, mathematics and STEM education. We're confident that the graduates from all of our majors, from chemistry to marine biology, information technology to environmental studies, and biology to mathematics education, will help positively transform the future as they themselves become tomorrow's innovation leaders."

Dean Robert Prezant

"Math has always been an interesting subject to me and classes at MSU have given me more knowledge and perspectives which will help me apply this major within my education profession."

Lynda Smith

college of the arts

The College of the Arts (CART) offers more than fifty majors, minors and concentrations in art and design, television and digital media, communication studies, dance, music and theatre. Twice designated as a Center of Excellence, the college maintains a commitment to quality programs and to providing professional training and education for students seeking careers as practitioners, educators, public servants and managers of the arts.

"More than 2,500 students are pursuing degrees in the College of the Arts in over fifty majors, minors, and concentrations. Whether they have been onstage or backstage, behind a camera or in front of a classroom, at a piano keyboard playing a Beethoven sonata or at a computer keyboard designing The Next Big Thing, we would like to congratulate our students on their accomplishments and wish them the best of luck after graduating Montclair State."

Dean Daniel Gurskis

"I chose to major in Musical Theatre because I love to perform. Nothing gives me more joy than bringing a story to life and entertaining people while doing so. Pursuing this major at this university has changed my life. The professors at this university have challenged and supported their students in the most amazing ways. I could not be more grateful for all the opportunities during the last few years."

Victoria Palin

The College of Education and Human Services offers a wide variety of outstanding undergraduate and graduate programs leading to professional careers in public and private schools, government agencies, non-profit organizations, and private industry. All programs in the College are firmly grounded in the liberal arts and include the opportunity for internships, field work or student teaching. Our seven academic departments are: Counseling and Educational Leadership; Secondary and Special Education; Early Childhood, Elementary and Literacy Education; Educational Foundations; Exercise Science and Physical Education; Family and Child Studies and Health and Nutrition Sciences.

"The outstanding students, faculty, and staff of the Montclair State University College of Education and Human Services are working in multiple ways to produce a healthier, better educated, and more just society. Students interested in teaching, special and inclusive education, family and child studies, public health, nutrition, dietetics, food management, food science, athletic training, and exercise science will find strong academic programs that are continuously refined and updated to prepare graduates for employment and leadership in today's demanding, selective workplaces."

Dean Tamara Lucas

"I chose Athletic Training mainly because the reputation of the program at MSU is phenomenal. The professors within the major are the best you will find. Dr. Gardin, Dr. Middlemas and Dr. Grant-Ford offer so much real life experience. The athletic training staff are also extremely knowledgeable and likable figures in the athletic training room."

Nick Wroblewski

"The Teacher Education Program teaches you early on that you must work very hard to succeed. I am so excited to have come this far and be a part of one of the most highly renowned programs in the state. This program molds students to become more than just teachers; it challenges us to become inspirational leaders of future generations."

Tess Schott

The College of Humanities and Social Sciences (CHSS) combines a traditional liberal arts education with focused preparation in a wide range of disciplines and professional areas. With 19 majors, 36 minors, 20 areas of graduate study and 16 professional certificate programs, we offer students the opportunity to begin a lifetime of learning in the humanities and social sciences while preparing for a successful career.

"In educating our students we aspire to provide them with valuable skills in communication, the ability to think independently and critically, the capacity to favor evidence over opinions, and the inclination to accept differing point of view. Through education we believe students can become capable of not only respecting but embracing diversity, finding themselves at ease with uncertainty, able to become informed, critical and participatory global citizens."

Dean Luis Montesinos

"I'm studying Classics at MSU and it is really amazing to be able to open The Odyssey or Metamorphoses and actually read them in their original language. Every professor has been so helpful in their feedback and support. Specifically, Dr. Susan Asirvatham has definitely been one who has helped me understand my studies to the best extent."

Kristen Bryfogle

"I chose the English major because I love learning how literature influences the way I view the world. My professor, Laura Jones, really inspired me to go into teaching because she showed me new ways of developing and teaching practices."

homecoming week

"My last homecoming was a fun and eventful day spent with good company. It was great to see our campus come together to celebrate an exciting event filled with spirit and pride!"

Melaney Lead

"Homecoming is one of my favorite times of the year here at Montclair State. Aside from the free t-shirts and prizes, our school comes together and has a lot of pride during this time and there is nothing I love more than seeing all of my fellow Red Hawks all together having a good time!"

What charity did you donate your quarter wars money to and why?

"The money raised from quarter wars will be donated to the National Multiple Sclerosis Society. I will be donating to this charity because I currently serve as Philanthropy Chair for Theta Xi Fraternity and our National Service Project is the fight against Multiple Sclerosis."

What does homecoming royalty mean to you?

"Being crowned MSU Homecoming Royalty means more than just the bragging rights that come with the title. I have held a leadership position in almost every department on campus as well as excelled in all my class work as an undergraduate student. Back in high school I was extremely shy and would have never imagined running for Homecoming, let alone receiving this amazing title. I hope other students will hear my story and be inspired to break out of their shells and become a true Red Hawk."

- Nick Vessichelli, Theta Xi Fraternity

What charity did you donate your quarter wars to money and why?

"The charity I chose to donate my quarter wars money to was Prevent Child Abuse in America. PCAA is my sorority, Sigma Delta Tau's, National Philanthropy. We have worked closely with this charity through many of our philanthropic events that we host every semester. It's a great feeling for me to see this money going to such a great charity to help children have the best futures possible."

What does homecoming royalty mean to you?

"I am completely honored to be chosen to represent Montclair State. MSU has been my home for 4 years and it has shaped me into the individual I am today. It has taught me how to be a friend, a sister, and an adult. My whole experience of homecoming this year leading up to me receiving this honor has just been the icing on the cake to my Montclair career and it's a great feeling knowing that I'm able to represent our amazing Red Hawk community."

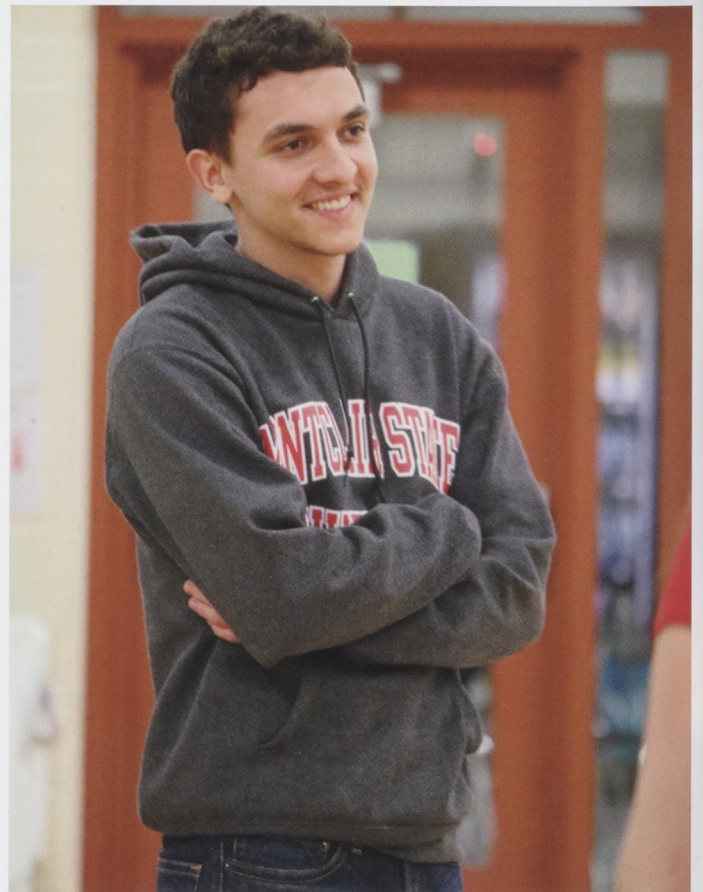

-Victoria Pignataro, Sigma Delta Tau Sorority

Daniel Waffenfelo

"I love the Build-A-Buddy event because it gives me the chance to be a little kid. And I think that SGA puts on a lot of fun events that really involve all of campus."

Being part of an event, like "Is the Price Right," was an incredible experience. It's amazing to see what can be accomplished when a group of people work together as a team. The best part of the night was hearing the loud cheers and laughter because, in that moment, you know that all of your hard work was worth it.

GET INVOLVED

recboard

RecBoard is an organization within Montclair State University's Department of Campus Recreation. Since its founding in 1999, RecBoard has hosted a variety of events for charity and the student body. Meetings with RecBoard aren't your typical meeting, they are filled with prizes, games, fun, and even some information on what's happening on campus!

"RecBoard has been the best part of my college experience. Our motto is 'Get Involved, Have Fun, and Make a Difference', and that is exactly what we do. I'm extremely grateful for the friends I've met, the memories I've made and the leadership experience that I have gained as a member of this wonderful student organization. There will always be a special place in my heart for Fridays at 2:30."

Gianna Hall

Recboard President

"I wanted to be part of something bigger than myself. Being part of National Day of Service has opened up my horizons and has helped me acknowledge that I can make a difference."

national day of service

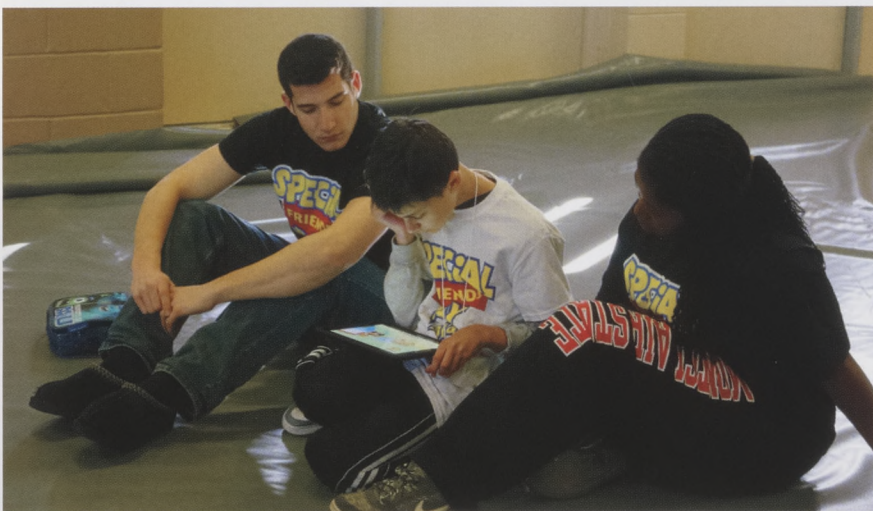

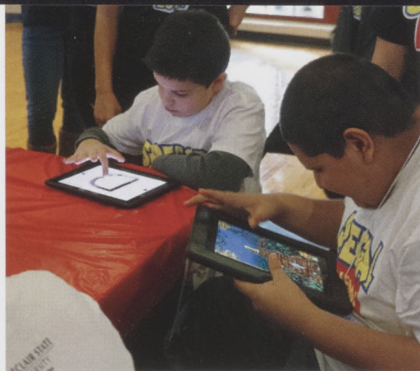

Montclair State University observes the 9/11 National Day of Service and Remembrance annually. All members of the MSU community are encouraged to participate by volunteering at a community service project organized by the Volunteer Resource Center and office of Service Learning and Community Engagement.

special friends day

Hosted by the Student Recreation Center, Special Friends Day welcomes special needs children from the community to pair with Montclair State University students as they explore and participate in numerous activities.

"SFD is a day for all of us to be selfless and give the Special Friends a day they will never forget. Being able to make these children smile and laugh and bond with their buddies is the best feeling in the entire world. This year marked my 5th and final SFD and as sad as I am that it is over, I am so fortunate to have been a part of it all and to help create such memorable events."

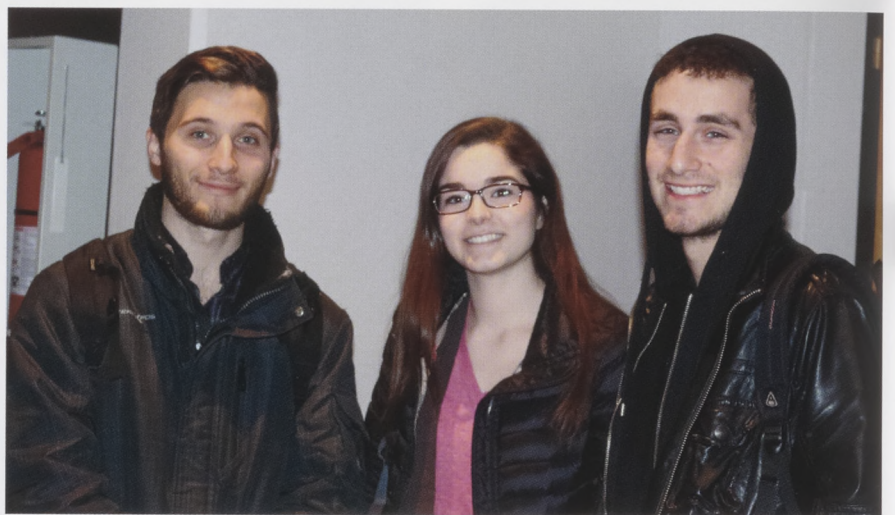

Aimee Devito

Area Supervisor- Special Event

"To be paired up with my special friend was an experience I will never forget for a lifetime. I loved this day and I hope many more Montclair State Students find out about this as well."

c.a.r.s

The Office of Commuter Student Programs and Services strives to create a strong community amongst the Commuter Students at Montclair State University. In doing so, this office, its student leaders, and C.A.R.S. host programs and provide a wealth of resources. These programs and services exist to support, connect and engage Commuter Students.

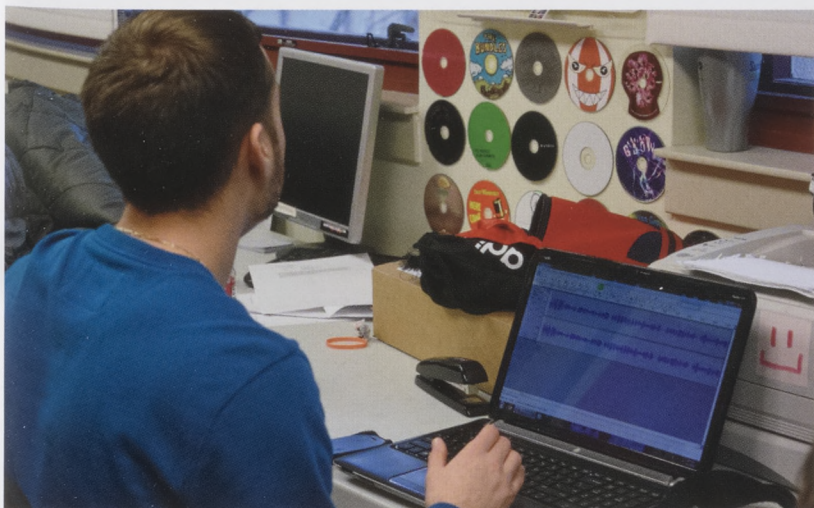

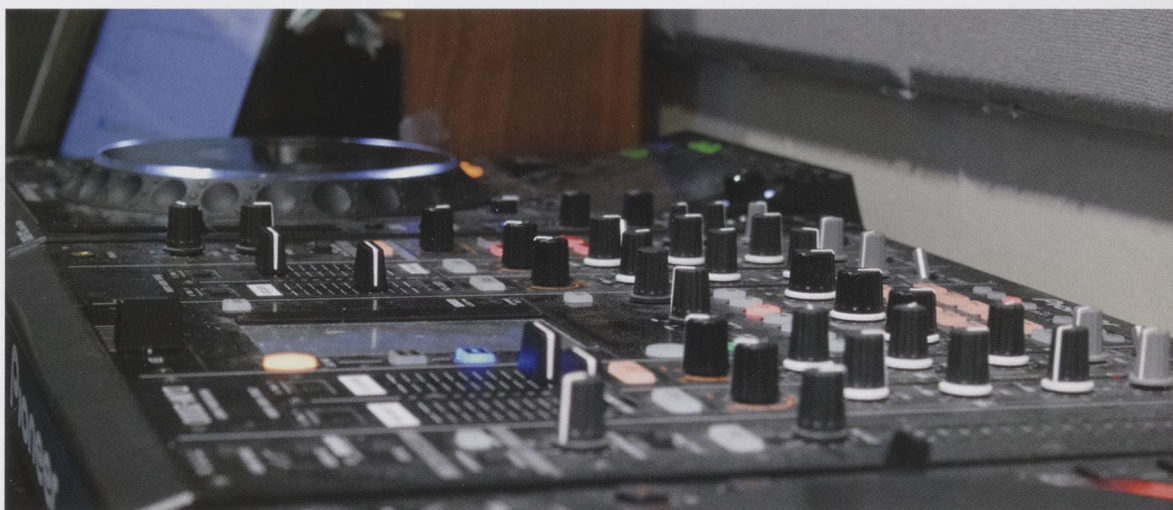

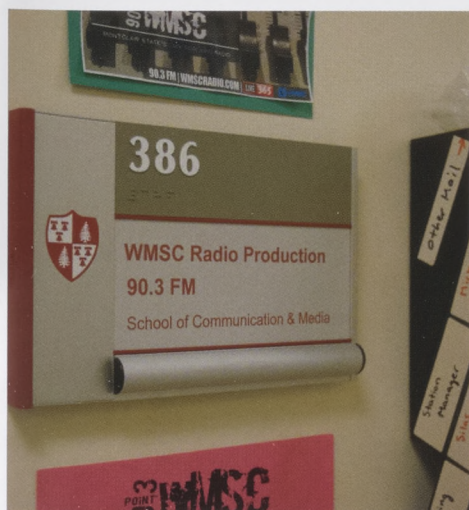

90.3fm wmsc

WMSC is a freeform FM college radio station located and owned by Montclair State University. WMSC-FM features a variety of programming including independent and underground music of various genres as well as news, sports, talk and special features. It is operated largely by University students with support from the School of Communication and Media's professional staff. The station broadcasts locally at 90.3 MHz and utilizes the internet radio network live365.com to transmit its programming to online listeners around the world.

"This is a place where you can express yourself and be who you want to be. This station allows students to broadcast their ideas and help communicate with others."

Micheal Sheehan
Senior Producer

"This year Relay for Life was bigger and better than ever. With some great planning and being able to use Yogi Berra Stadium as our new venue, we had close to 1,000 participants that were able to raise $55,000. We were so proud of the Montclair community for being so involved in such an amazing event."

Gina Dispensa
Event Coordinator

relay for life

Relay for Life is an annual, overnight relay-style event to raise funds and awareness in the fight against cancer. At the event, teams of people camp out around a track. Members of each team take turns walking around the track for the duration of the event. Food, games, and activities provide entertainment and fundraising opportunities in a family-friendly environment for the entire community. Montclair State University is proud to host this event annually and will continue to support the efforts to fundraise for the American Cancer Society.

lgbtq center

The Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, Transgender, Queer (LGBTQ) Center seeks to create an open, accepting, and affirming atmosphere for LGBTQ students, faculty, staff and their allies at Montclair State University. The LGBTQ Center allows for unique and important conversations to occur regarding LGBTQ issues through education, programming, and discussion groups. We are a safe space and welcome all members of the campus community.

"The LGBTQ Center is such an important and affirming place at MSU. Brian Edwards and the Peer Educators strive to educate as many members of the community as possible. It's been amazing to see the many, many students, faculty, staff, and even people from outside of Montclair State, come to get safe space trained. From RAs, to Greek Life, the LGBTQ center continues to positively impact the lives of Montclair students, and create change."

Johanna Durazzi

"I became a Peer Advocate because I wanted to be able to help my peers and other people in Montclair State University's community learn more about ways to promote healthy lifestyles."

"I wanted to be an ambassador because it allows me to represent Montclair State University. Montclair State has opened so many doors for me, and I want to show people, students especially, that it can do the same for them."

Rizzlyn Melo

Admissions Ambassador

admissions ambassadors

Ambassadors of the Office of Undergraduate Admissions at Montclair State University, are part of an elite group of students whose goal is to provide the best possible experience to guests and prospective students while visiting our campus. They play a major part in the University's efforts to recruit a diverse student body which will benefit from our comprehensive undergraduate curricula and rich campus life community.

bonner leaders

Montclair State University is one of more than 60 colleges and universities nation-wide honored to host a Bonner Leaders AmeriCorps Program. The Bonner Leader Program is part of AmeriCorps, a national service initiative that provides opportunities for participants to engage in community service in return for a modest stipend and scholarship funds.

"I joined the Bonner Leaders because I always loved doing community service and I wanted to give back to my community as much as I could. I also hoped to meet more people and create long-lasting friendships."

Marie Vizzotti

emergency medical services

Having been available to the Montclair State University and the surrounding communities since 1998, Montclair State University EMS continues to be staffed entirely by students, 24 hours a day, throughout the school year. Our strength as an organization is deeply rooted in being members of the community that we serve. As our call volume has increased over the last several years we have continued to grow in other areas by adding a second ambulance and transitioning to a paperless charting system.

Volunteer Opportunity

Daytime Volunteers: Members who cover shifts during weekdays from 8am - 11pm (shifts are split into blocks: 8am-11am, 11am-3pm, 3pm-7pm, and 7pm-11pm). Daytime volunteers also cover special events that occur on nights and weekends. Members who volunteer a minimum of twelve hours per week are eligible for priority registration. While we're always looking for EMTs with experience, no training is necessary to join. We will make arrangements for new members to attend EMT and CPR training.

CPR Members: Members who are not currently certified as EMTs but would like to participate in the program and are working towards their EMT certification. CPR members are eligible to receive a waiver to complete a NJ State EMT program free once requirements have been met. Must be a minimum of Healthcare level CPR trained prior to applying.

Non-Resident EMTs: Previously certified EMTs who take part in daytime shifts but are not currently in the resident program. Must be a minimum of NJ State EMT certified, ICS 100 and 200, as well as Healthcare level CPR certified.

Resident EMTs: Each academic year, Montclair State EMS maintains a core cadre of 12 resident EMTs who are responsible for a majority of shifts as well as special events. Resident EMTs are responsible for covering night shifts (11pm-8am) and weekend shifts, as well as their required weekday daytime shifts. Resident EMTs also maintain additional responsibilities within the department.

muslim student association

The purpose of MSA is to encourage and enable its members with basic knowledge and competence in Islam and to contribute individually and collectively toward meeting human needs in conformity with Islamic doctrines and beliefs. The MSA introduces the Muslim cultural heritage of the Islamic world to the student body of Montclair State University, and also acts as a bridge between the community at Montclair State University and the communities of the Islamic World.

The Montclair State Dietetics Organization (MSDO) is a Class II Organization of the SGA. It is open to all students who want to promote healthy lifestyles, regardless of major. MSDO's philosophy is to promote student participation in nutrition related activities for the purpose of furthering nutrition knowledge, promoting healthful living, and enhancing career development.
